

NAIFA MOURNS LOSS

of

Raymond "Mickey" Moran

MORAN SERVED AS NAIFA PRESIDENT FROM 1995-1996

FALLS CHURCH, VA (December 23, 2008) — The National Association of Insurance and Financial Advisors (NAIFA), the nation's largest financial services membership organization, mourns the loss of a respected leader in the insurance and financial services industry, Raymond H. "Mickey" Moran, CLU, ChFC. He died peacefully at home in Tennessee on December 18 of lung cancer. He was 76.

Mickey joined NAIFA in 1963 and was active in the industry at the local, state and national level. He was President of NAIFA-TN from 1983-1984 and received their Insurance Professional of the Year award in 1987. He was elected to the NAIFA Board of Trustees in 1988 and 1990, and served as President in 1995. He was very active on national committees, serving on the John Newton Russell Memorial Award Committee, the Committee on Elections, the Committee on Finance, the Convention Committee, and the Bylaws Committee, to name a few.

He was a member of The Association of Health Insurance Advisors (AHIA), NAIFA's health and employee benefits advocate, and the American Association of Life Underwriters (AALU). He was Chairman of the LIFE Board, as well as a 30-year Life and Qualifying Member of the Million Dollar Roundtable. Mickey was owner (along with his nephew, Tim Moran) of the Moran Company, affiliated with the UCL Financial Group in Memphis.

NAIFA MOURNS LOSS OF

Mickey was active in many civic groups, including the Presidency of the University Club of Memphis. He was President of the Memphis Museums Incorporated, President of Les Passees Children's Rehabilitation Center, Member of the Christian Brothers Hall of Fame, and Chairman of the Finance committee at St. Peter Catholic Church. He also enjoyed tennis at the University Club and golfed frequently with his many close friends at Germantown Country Club.

He is survived by his wife, Pat Moran, his three daughters, Lauren Waddilove (Gordon) of Marietta, Georgia; Erin Lynch (Michael) of Nashville, Tennessee; and Katie Moran of Austin, Texas. He also leaves six grandchildren, Taylor, David and Matthew Waddilove, and Megan, Mia and Charlie Lynch. He is survived by his Mother-in-Law, Julia Taylor; his brothers, Jack Moran (Pat) of Memphis, Bill Moran (Carol) of Chicago and his sister, Therese Schlueter of Cincinnati. His brother Eddie Moran of Atlanta passed away in 1975.

In lieu of flowers, please send any donations to Church Health Center, St. Peter Church Literary Society, or charity of donor's choice.
